WCSD Superintendent Susan Enfield Continues Wasting Money While Ignoring Dangerous and Dysfunctional Schools

Board Approves 2 MORE Worthless Purchases

1) Will Superintendent's $5M Worth of Panic Buttons Create Safer Schools?

NOT According to National School Security Experts!

- "Panic Buttons are nothing more than Security Theater."
- "They create a false sense of safety."

- “Implementing more basic safety measures and staff training is what works.”

Who is going to ANSWER panic buttons? NO ONE!

- “Our administrators are hiding in their offices and don’t even answer their phones when we call them! They would NEVER have our backs if there were a problem.” (Multiple WCSD High School Staff)

2) Does the Superintendent Really Need a SIXTH Assistant Superintendent to Help Do Her Job?

<https://twitter.com/SuptEnfield/status/1636866847760084993>

Superintendent Enfield already has FIVE assistant superintendents to help her manage 60,000 students and 100 schools.

The Superintendent of Los Angeles Unified School District manages 600,000 students and 1,000 schools and only requires SIX assistant superintendents.

Enfield has now created another position - her “Assistant TO the Superintendent,” with a compensation package that will cost taxpayers $175,000+ per year.

What else COULD WCSD purchase with this money?

1. Three more full-time sex-trafficking prevention workers to save our students’ lives. or,
2. A voluntary drug-testing program for ALL high schools and middle schools to stop our drug abuse epidemic

For $400,000 per year - and with our schools imploding, Washoe County taxpayers must demand more from the Superintendent than her ceaseless self-promotion on social media.

- Posting cloying photos of herself visiting the youngest possible WCSD students. Instead, how about posting videos of Enfield walking unescorted around secondary school campuses at lunchtime, asking typical students how they feel about the drug abuse, gang presence, and violence at their schools?
- Posting endless photos and messages of self-congratulation with other superintendents and nationwide education-related organizations. Instead, how about focusing on stopping campus violence, drug abuse, and improving our students' 80% functional illiteracy rate, or is the Superintendent already looking past her current position and doing pre-interviews for her NEXT one?

Obsessive social media self-promotion has NOTHING to do with the job Enfield is being paid to do at approximately $2,000 per DAY!

You decide. <https://twitter.com/SuptEnfield>
